

The Invasion of The Cavity Creatures

Deep in the Molar Mountains is a mythical land called Tongue Town where Brushers brush, Flossers floss, and Pickers pick to keep dreaded Cavity Creatures away from their beloved mountains. However, a young Brusher believes its too nice out to work and convinces everyone to take the day off. This proves to be a disaster! Can the people of Tongue Town rally in time to fend off these rotten blobs? Maybe a little help from The Toothpaste Avenger is just what they need! Or does he arrive too late to save the Molar Mountains from these disastrous creatures?
